

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Family Health Outcomes Project (FHOP) is a collaborative project of the Federal MCH Bureau, California Department of Health Services and the University of California, San Francisco. With sincere appreciation, the following people are recognized for their support and contributions to the development of FHOP's Selecting Health Indicators for Public Health Surveillance:

W. Sundin Applegate, MD
Medical Director, Community and Family Health Services
Arizona Department of Health Services

William Christoffel
Deputy Director, Health Resources Administration
Hawaii State Department of Health

Donna Clark, RN, MN
Title V Director
Oregon State Health Division

Mary Fermazin, MD, MPA
Chief, Office of Managed Care Quality Improvement
California Department of Health Services

Steven A. Kemp, RN, BSN, PHN
Quality Improvement Nurse
Santa Barbara Regional Health Authority

Reginald Louie, DDS, MPH
Chief, Family Health Unit
Region IX Program Consultant
Health Resources and Services Administration

Dorothy Mann, PhD
Senior Fellow
UW Institute for Public Policy & Management

Marie Miller, PhD
Quality and Utilization Supervisor
Kaiser Permanente Medical Group

Karen Pearson, MS
Chief, Section of Maternal, Child and Family Health
Alaska Department of Health and Social Services

Roger Perotto
Chief, Clinical and Preventive Services
Idaho Department of Health and Welfare

Rita Schmidt
MCH Director, Office of community and Family Health
Washington State Department of Health

Clifford J. Sells, MD, MPH
Director, Child Development and Rehabilitation Center
Oregon Health Sciences University

Rugmini Shah, MD
Chief, MCH Branch
California Department of Health Services

Samuel J. Tobin, MA
Senior Consultant
Human Resource Group
Coopers & Lybrand LLP

Margaret West, PhD, MSW
Region X Program Consultant
Health Resources and Services Administration

Judith Wright
Bureau Chief
Nevada State Health Division